February 2022 Half Term

Art Challenge!

Young Art Oxford is an annual art competition that raises money for research into childhood illnesses.

This year's theme is dreams.

The winning pictures will be displayed at The Ashmolean Museum from the 12th-14th May.

Rules and Information

Entries must be brought to school on Monday 28th February, along with £2 for the competition entry fee (in a sealed, named envelope) and a signed consent form. Please hand in all 3 to the main office.

The art must be created on paper no larger than A3 and only oil paint, watercolour, pastel, crayon, pencil, poster paint and ink are permitted.

Pictures should not be mounted.

On the back of your picture, please write in BLOCK CAPITALS:

Child's name, school year and 'Christopher Rawlins Primary School'.

You may also write a short explanation or title for the picture on the back.

No names or signatures should be on the front of the picture.

You can find out more information, including about the return of the pictures at <http://www.youngartoxford.com/>
